"In short," as our friend Macawher would say, the convention adjourned without organizing and the "people's candidate" went home without a nomination.

STEAMER MICHIGAN.-This vessel arrived in port Saturday afternoon. At Erie, during the squall of Friday afternoon, she was run into by the schooner St. James, by which her jibboom was carried away, her figure-head staved to pieces, and some other damage done. The schooner was at anchor, but the wind caused reducing monateration written the reach of the her to drag her anchors, and she came down the United States, but an independent to refer a oter a upon the Michigan with great force. The ENGLISH AND AMERICAN schooner had her forespit much injured.

Annivat raos Supanion .- The steamer Iron City arrived Saturday morning from Lake Superior. The following memoranda we get from community famous throughout the Clerk Holland :- Left Ontonagon on last Moneffects of the "AMIE DE PEMME," I day; left Eagle River at 10 o'clock Tuesday; aly may, that all so is in hand forms, and is exactly such met the Illinois little above Copper Harbor on Tuesday afternoon; left Marquette, Monday morning at 5 o'clock; left the Saut on Thursday at 10 o'clock A. M.; met Northern Light off Presque Isle at 6 c'clock the same day .-She brought down from the Cliff mine 29 mass es and 65 bbls. copper, weighing 153,517 lbr.; Tor ether with from Adventure mine 4 bbls., 2,221; from Moss mine 2 bbls. and 2 masses, 2,000 lbs.; from Iron Works 60 bars iron, weighing 6,689 lbs.

The Iron City leaves on the return trip Wednesday evening.

A Levels Mixup .- Griswold, of the Detroit Advertiser, is responsible for the following re-

"A lame horse was driving a wagon in a lumber woman, with a one horse child, to the afternoon, in the Fair. A deep rat run down into the wagon, and the wagon wheel pitched out over the child; horse's nose began to bleed, and child started on the run, but was stopped when the crowd ran into him."

A Succession .- Now that the work of numbering the streets is going on, it is a good time to make changes in the names of streets, avenues &c., if any change is desirable. We can see no propriety of having half of a street called by one name and the other half by another. as is the case with the one running along the river, which north of Superior street is called River and South, Merwin street. We would suggest that the two be called by one name and Ladies is called to the above have a regular numbering from one end to the machine, which possesses the other. Let this be done and Merwin street exfollowing decided and un- tend along the river from Bath street to Columous street bridge. We choose Merwin because INFANTS HOODS, 1st. Cotton is used as it is purchased—on spools it is the name of one of the early pioneers, of without re-winding; saving time, trouble and the city, and it is fitting that his name be per-2d. The trouble and perplexity of filling a shut uniting of these two streets into one will make 500 PARASOLS-JUST REC'D (as in other machines,) is in this avoided; no it much more convenient and, we will add, sensible. We hope this matter will be discussed and acted upon.

After finishing his match with Harrwiz, Mr. Morphy will proceed directly to Berlin and Breslan to meet Anderseen, Lange and Mayet, who, with Von der Lasa, are at present the great exponents of German chess. It is a matter of much regret, both to Mr. Morphy and his admirers, that the diplomatic duties of Von der Lasa (who is Prussian Minister to Bio Janeiro) preclude the possibility of bringing about a meeting between these distinguished players. The last likestrated News of London gives a portrait and life of Mr. Morphy, together with the eight games played hindfolded by him at the Birmingham meeting.
